Enter a keyword search in Encore to find books, videos and digital collections about Nazism.

Use the * to find any citations that contain the root n-a-z-i.

You can refine your results by format, location, language, date, tags...
• Clicking on the tag GAYS yields a subset of the original result list.

• Books not available at the SLU libraries can be requested via ConnectNY.
WorldCat returns results from over 9,000 libraries worldwide.

The green highlight tells you St. Lawrence owns this book.

WorldCat supports a direct export to RefWorks.
Finding Journal Articles

All of the disciplines taught at St. Lawrence are displayed on the library homepage.

Click on “History” to find recommended indexes.

There’s no one, single “right” index. Use a combination of indexes to do comprehensive research.

Historical Abstracts covers your topic and supports “Federated Searching”.

</table>
Before you enter search terms, click on “Choose Databases” to search multiple indexes at the same time.

Check off all of the indexes that pertain to your research topic and search them simultaneously (this is called Federated Searching).
• Enter appropriate keywords.

• You can restrict your results to only “Peer Reviewed/Scholarly Journals” if you wish.

• The FULL TEXT of many articles is available online.

• HTML Full Text – words only, prints quickly.

• PDF Full Text – words, graphics, and charts are included; might take a while to download and print.

• Linked Full Text – takes you to a PDF in another database.

• Click on FIND@SLU if the article isn’t available full text.
- Search JSTOR to find older sources.

Project Muse

- Project Muse identifies the context in which keywords are used.
